DEDICATION

For fourteen years, the fine representation of our school and community by the Algona High School Band has been the result of Mr. Russell Guster's guidance of band students from the grades through graduation. We, the annual directors, wish to dedicate this '59 Bulldog to him in appreciation for his contribution.

May, 1959

To the Class of 1959, A.H.S.:

Perhaps you will have a class reunion twenty-five years after your present milestone. I am confident that events will prove the lie in Orwell's book, "1984" and many of you will be around to vouch for it. Predictions are dangerous but the following are ventured for this planet, Earth, 1984. You yourself may have some influence on whether they prove to be true or false:

- Your education after high school was far more important than you once thought; indeed, the process truly never stopped.
- What you did for a living was far less significant than how you went about making it.
- The known world, while much larger than in 1959, still had the same human personality problems in 1984.
- The spirit of God had never lost its significance to the human heart.
- With all the wonderful expansion of science and machines, the human mind was still the most inspiring source of wonder in the world.
- A man or woman could be truly great without being famous.
- Your teacher was not truly appreciated until you yourself had taught someone.
- To look forward with resolution was better than looking back with regret.

By 1984 the answers to these questions will be written in your own twenty-five years of experience. Possibly, your greatest satisfaction will be to pass the test on to those who follow you.

Sincerely,

O. B. Laing

SCHOOL BOARD

Behind the scenes, these often overlooked men and women are busy coping with the many problems that concern our schools. It is to this capable group that we owe thanks for a well-organized school system.

MR. BLACK

MRS. WOLFE

MR. DEAL

MR. EVANS

Mr. Evans holds one of the most responsible positions in our school and during the past two years he has demonstrated his ability to fill it. The difficult task of administering student affairs falls on him.

To this capable administrator, we, the students, give a sincere "Thank You".

PRINCIPALS

MR. CHALLY

Having completed his third year at the helm of the Junior High, Mr. Chally has proved himself an able skipper. His tireless efforts, intense interest, and understanding has endeared him to his students. They feel fortunate to have a man of Mr. Chally's ability to lead them.

SENIOR CLASS

For twelve years we have waited for the day when we would walk proudly across the stage and receive our diplomas. But now that day has come and we can't help but feel a little sad. Suddenly we realize that we are no longer students of A. H. S. No matter where we look, there are memories: the open lockers which were once so crammed we thought we could never get anything else in them, the empty classrooms where we spent so many hours, and the silent gym where we cheered our athletes to victory.

Yes, we are sorry to leave, but we know that the future holds many good things. We will face it knowing that Algona High has given us the knowledge and background necessary for success.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY, '59

As I entered Algona, the metropolis of the Middle West, I passed the City Park and there on a bench, covered with the previous day's edition of the Wall Street Journal, was Jim Pratt. I shook him gently, and after he awoke he divulged some interesting facts about the class that had graduated ten long years ago.

The class of '59 has made two contributions to the world of politics. Joel Harris is representing the United States at a summit conference with Russia while Dan Skow has replaced Ezra Taft Benson as Secretary of Agriculture. Mariana Steele, an interpreter at the U.N., is currently working with Aly Khan, the Pakistani delegate, on the formulation of an international language.

Europe has claimed three of the class members. Sandy Phillips, the Da Vinci of your time, is living on the Left Bank in Paris, and Linda Smith, the Asphalt heiress, is now vacationing on the Riviera after an unsuccessful fifth marriage. Linda Hansen in Montecarlo doing research -- oh WHAT research! -- for her latest novel, wrote back that she was surprised to see Frank Hagg's name on a hot rod racing form there. Speaking of cars, Bob Arend has recently incorporated his customizing shop.

Joyce Huenhold has a night club on Forty-fifth street known internationally as "Huey's Hide-away." She employs Larry Cook as bouncer and Carol Shore as head cigarette girl. Our annual editor, too, has gained fame. Alfred E. Newman has surrendered the editorship of Mad magazine to Carole Wittkopf who, with Paul Christoffers as assistant, manages to continue the magazines policy of superior idiocy.

Financial wizard, John Oakland, has finally accomplished his goal of chemical engineer, but still continues to handle extensive funds as president of the First National Bank. Pam Porter and husband have taken up permanent residence on an army post in Hawaii where she still sings her old favorite, "Tall Paul." Pam was recently visited by Jean Bjstrom who received her Bachelor Degree in '65. She is now frantically looking for one. Tish Thompson seems to have had better luck. She found her million -- and married it!

Further discussion with Jim revealed that several class members have remained at home. Dave Schneider is now driving bus number five for A.H.S. Patti Hedlund, Judy Adreon, and Ruth Erickson have taken the places vacated by Deloris, Barb, and Clara. Mary Boldridge has become Algona's favorite teacher by advocating a two-day school week. The happy couples of Mavis and Mert, Verna and Ray, Roxanne and Bob, and Janice and Frankie are living here and keeping the schools well supplied with pupils. Joyce Opheim has doubled the population of Sexton. Jim also reported seeing Arnie Braun coming out of Terry-Struecker's barber shop with four little red-headed Irishmen in tow. Speaking of children, Sharon Ericson is frantically phoning around in search of a babysitter for her dark-haired, brown-eyed moppets so she and Frank can go out on the town. Algona's police force is now headed by capable Judy Bowman who is assisted by Deloris Helmers. Al Fosnaugh is head butcher at Fareway. Sandy Bay owns controlling stock in the corporation. Another businessman, Tom Potter, has made a million and retired to a life of leisure. Judy Pingel is famous locally for the look-alike Easter outfits which she makes for her entire family. Jim Adreon is now Kossuth County's National Guard recruiting officer. To escape his clutches, John Bierstedt fled to Texas where he is now running a cattle ranch with Robert Schmitt and all his 'riches' as ranch hands. Local TV viewers were pleased to see Jon Discoe playing as Zorro in a revival of that old series. Another celebrity, Roger Rochleau, has replaced the peacock for NBC color television. Marv Miller, a famous actor, is on Broadway stage accompanied by Sue LaBarre who is head curtain-puller.

Wayne Arndorfer built a multimillion dollar business out of his dairy cow pool. Then Alan Walker developed synthetic milk and Wayne was left holding the bag.

Latest reports from the hospital show that Margie Gade, Judy Rovn, and Sara Clark are making a complete mess out of things.

Nancy Ditsworth, the Suzy Parker of our time, is well known in New York as a topnotch fashion model and actress. An equally famous celebrity, Judy O'Brien has just received the coveted title of Mrs. America.

The world of sports has welcomed several of our class members. Wayne "Rebel" Johnson is resting on his laurels won in world track competition. Gary Davis is his manager. Gorgeous Jim Kain, better known as "Crusher Kain" is now on tour after winning the national professional wrestling title. Daryl Brayton, as his promoter, is busy "FIXING" fights for him.

Pat Kain is presently on a safari in Africa searching for the fierce lost tribe, the Oobie Joobies. During his lengthy search, he ran across the thriving mission set up by Sheron Egel.

On behalf of the English Department, Carol Hurn recently conducted a successful campaign to rid the English language of the word victuals. Nola Gatton finally met and married that mysterious voice at the other end of her line. Perhaps she was aided by Robbie Hutchins' "Advice to the Lovelorn" column which he writes from behind his Admiral's desk. Dennis Jergenson has finally taken up permanent residence in Minneapolis. Suddenly I realized that Jim hadn't mentioned one very important class member, Judie Strahorn. After a little prodding, he finally confessed that Judie has just been released from reform school and has published a book, "ONE THOUSAND ONE WAYS TO BECOME THE PRINCIPAL'S PAL."

After his exhausting discourse, Jim Pratt silently pulled his belt a notch tighter and again dozed off peacefully under his protective covering of the Wall Street Journal.

JUNIOR CLASS

The days when we were frisky freshmen and snappy sophomores are passed. This year we were juniors with a big job to do.

Our Homecoming float won first place -- we have a treasure of future ideas, too! With "Palms" leadership, we topped previous Junior classes in money-making at the stand. Other accomplishments were leading in basketball scoring, an immensely successful play, and two cheerleaders on the varsity squad. The Juniors were willing to advise anyone on about any subject after all this first-hand experience.

We realized a few weak points like school skipping existed, but by graduation in 1960 maybe these will disappear.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The class of '61 had a fairly good year. Many of the kids you saw driving around were members of this class, and many of them own their cars. If you heard a sophomore say that he lost his eyeball, he was merely referring to the lens of a fish eye, which he procured during his first dissection in biology. It was a standing joke with the sophomores to say they hated world history, but just how many really did? And how about those students who were always trying to side-track Miss Miller? Miss Sorensen submitted some of the sophomore's writing to "Scorch" and also sent several poems to the poetry contest, so you may hear from us a little on the literary side of life, too.

Thus, was the class of '61 as sophomores. With joy we are looking forward to our last two years at "AHS."

FRESHMAN CLASS

The class of '62 will long be remembered as the class who did so much and accomplished so little!

We were lowly freshmen, but held a few places of honor. In cheerleading, Sheila Fain was on the B squad, Carole Richman was a B alternate, and Sandi Cook was varsity alternate. Although we didn't have the best lineup in sports, we boasted about such players as Chuck Streit and Doug Medin.

As we embark upon our high school career, we wish to represent an image of smiling faces and high hopes.

Out of the way upperclassmen -- here we come.

Although the Bulldog gridmen suffered through another winless season, they never ceased in their efforts to improve. But the Bulldog forces did succeed in giving Iowa Falls, the conference champions a torrid battle before succumbing 20-13.

The Bulldogs placed two men, center Joel Harris and quarterback Wayne Johnson on both the Jack North and I.D.P.A. all-state honor rolls.

Things look on the brighter side for Coach Shugarts' Bulldogs as both the Junior High and Freshman-Sophomore teams compiled winning seasons.

Since four underclassmen finished out the year as regulars, Coach George Duvall is looking forward to having an exceptionally experienced team next season.

WRESTLING

The grapplers had a rough and tumble season this year, facing several "weighty" problems. Although the season's record was unimpressive, the team ranked second in the conference and was represented at the state tournament by Jason Etherington and Jim Kain. Jase captured the runner-up title in his weight class. Having lost only two boys from the first team, Coach Martin is looking forward to a wonderful season for Algona next year.

TRACK

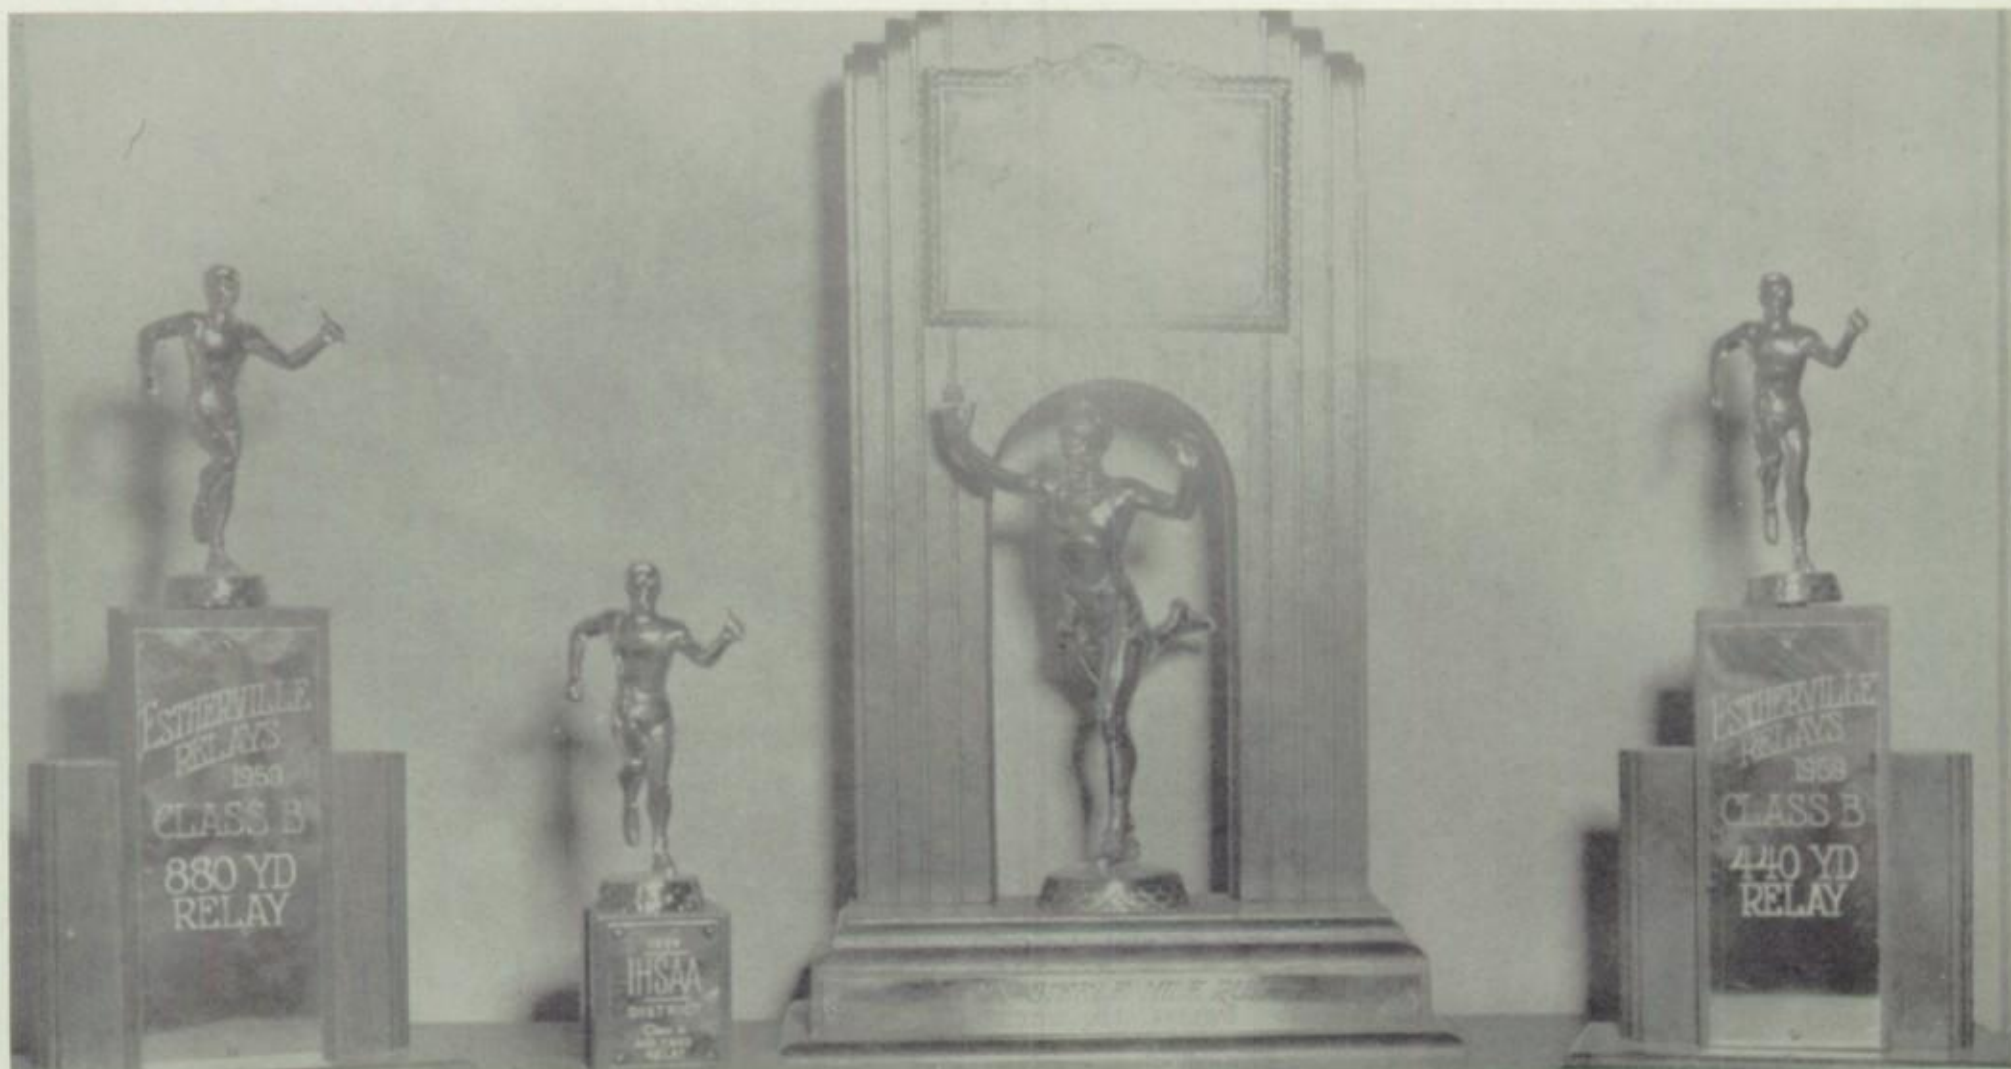

For the second straight year the Bulldogs made a good showing in the state meet. Six boys helped Algona to a tenth place finish. They were: Garry Davis, Jon Discoe, Wayne Johnson, Jerry Cowan, Dieter Gruner, and Jim Oberwetter. The 440 relay team of Discoe, Cowan, Gruner, and Oberwetter ran a fine 46.1, but failed to place. Johnson swept the 100 and 220 yard dashes, setting a record in the latter. Oberwetter also placed tenth in the mile run.

ADVISERS
Mr. Chiquet and Miss Gannon

This year the Seniors again set out to publish that traditional "biggest and best annual ever." Undaunted by missing money, ruined lay-out sheets, and a few "minor" mishaps, we managed to meet our deadline. A lot of time and hard work has gone into these pages. We're proud of our '59 Bulldog. Hope you like it!

Any book will tell you the Seniors won the jalopy race.

ANNUAL SALES

At least you weren't one. Or were you?

Where's my fourteen dollars?

OFFICERS --Linda Smith, Joel Harris, Dick Zweifel, Carol Shore.

FIRST ROW: Judy O'Brien, Pam Waller, Linda Smith, Jeanette Bjustrom, Carol Shore. BACK ROW: Ben Herbst, Dick Zweifel, Joel Harris, Pat Kain, Michael McNeill, Ron Tschetter.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council again assumed a leading role in the government and welfare of the student body. The council this year helped to establish the "Dress Right" code and the first Algona chapter of the National Honor Society.

The council's two charity projects, the Christmas families and the Kossuth County Retarded Children, netted nearly two hundred fifty dollars. The money was raised by numerous sock-hops, a talent show and the faculty-student council basketball game.

At the district convention, Algona replaced outgoing President Joel Harris with two capable members of the local council in other offices. Lee Lawson was elected to the State Cabinet and Ben Herbst to the District Cabinet.

Due to the excellent co-operation of the administration and the guidance of our energetic sponsor, Mr. Alberts, the Algona High School Student Council once again recorded a successful year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

A chapter of the National Honor Society was established in Algona this year. Eight seniors, four juniors, and three sophomores met the right requirements for membership based on scholarship, character, leadership, and service. This club, humorously nicknamed "the eggheads," will work to further scholastic achievement. In the spring, they supported a banquet for all honor roll students.

PEP CLUB

OFFICERS: Emma Finley, Mariana Steele, Pam Porter, Jo Ann Mino.

Pep Club has done much to boost the school spirit and support the teams. Besides attending all the home basketball games and wrestling meets, we attended five out-of-town events. Surely everybody has noticed our addition to the halls and our artistic hoops. Although we have had a few mishaps, (broken hoops and flashcard mix-ups), Pep Club has had a very successful year.

Since this organization's creation three years ago, it has increased in size and ability. From the bi-weekly practices emerged a group of girls who deserved the applause that rang out for them. Even such mishaps as shoes flying off, zippers breaking, pom-poms coming apart, and stockings falling down failed to unnerve them as they executed their intricate routines. Accompanied by the Pep Band, they performed during the half of every home basketball game.

"A" CLUB

The "A" Club is composed of athletes who have lettered in any sport offered in the high school. They are easily recognizable by the big red "A" on their letter jackets. This year the club sponsored a Holiday Sports Night during the Christmas vacation in which our basketball team upset strong Des Moines Tech, and our wrestlers put up a tough fight before falling.

ART CLUB

The Art Club held monthly noon meetings this year. After an informal luncheon, we discussed and criticized our individual artistic projects. President, Sandra Phillips was assisted by Secretary Linda Clark and Vice-President Jack Gross. Miss Condon contributed to the fine time shared by all who have an active interest in art.

CAMERA CLUB

Camera Club is one of the more specialized organizations in our school, its main attraction is a convenient excuse to get out of study hall to go to the darkroom. The members were quite active, as shown by the number of cameras broken, film exposed, and chemicals spilled. This year the club's major project was taking, developing, and printing pictures for the annual.

D.E.C.A.

The Algona chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America has contributed much to our purpose of preparing well-adjusted, employable citizens in the distributive fields for our community. One of our success stories this year was the buying, promoting, and selling of "Bulldog" desk calendars which helped offset the expenses of sending our D.E.C.A. club to the state convention at Des Moines. Special thanks should be given to Diamond's Surplus, Penney's, Kossuth Motors, S and L, Bjostrom's Furniture, Cook's Radiator Repair, and the Fareway Store who participated in our training program this year by furnishing actual on-the-job training situations to supplement our distributive classes.

F.T.A.

Future Teachers of America was formed in February. With the primary purpose to learn about the teaching profession, the organization is concerned with teaching opportunities, important responsibilities in our democracy.

The club hasn't been too active yet, but the organization's framework was established and senior members attended the Iowa State Teacher's College Career Day. F.T.A. has a good start for next year.

F.F.A.

The Algona Chapter of the Future Farmers of America had a successful year with its various teams. In soil judging, our team placed fourth at the Humboldt District Contest. Other awards captured during trips were a silver award in extemporaneous speaking by Alan Walker and a bronze award by Wayne Arndorfer at the District Convention at Titonka. The dairy cattle judging team participated in the dairy Cattle Congress at Waterloo.

SPONSOR
Mrs. Collier

This was one of the most successful years the Algona Chapter of F.H.A. has ever had. Karen Alt was elected State Secretary at the Annual State Convention held in Des Moines. Our monthly meetings centered around the theme "Opportunities in the Homemaking Field."

F.H.A.

At the beginning of the year, the officers edited a handbook containing the F.H.A. rituals and club organization. Charity projects included collecting old magazines and making cookies for the County Home in addition to contributing meat for the needy Christmas family. Surely we'll all remember those sessions in the kitchen during refreshment time.

G.R.A.

One of the most active groups in our high school is the Girls' Recreation Association. It develops sportsmanship and interest in athletics as well as providing wholesome leisure activities for the girls.

The first business on the G.R.A. calendar is the initiation of new members. The goal of each member is to work toward their G.R.A. emblem or letter.

An indication of their many activities is the long list of projects which the G.R.A. undertakes: the sponsorship of girls' intramurals, activity nights, the Sports Dance and sock hops, the annual picnic in the fall, and playdays with surrounding towns.

Miss Hays, sponsor of G.R.A., and officers are responsible for the successful administration of the organization. Get recreationally acquainted with G.R.A.

MUSIC

MARCHING BAND

Long hours of marching practice really paid off for the band this year. The band provided excellent half-time programs during the football season and finally got to march in front of the horses in the Armistice Day Parade. Algona also had the first marching hula-hoops.

CONCERT

This year, Gus's fourteenth, was a big one for the Algona High School Band. Its main project was a trip to Wyoming in July. Both Gus and the band members worked hard with their bake sales, candy sales, skating party, and other money-making projects which helped to make the trip a big success.

Don't be alarmed! The weird sounds that drifted from the annex every Monday during sixth period was only the Pep Band practicing. Who will ever forget the Pep Band's rendition of such immortal selections as "Lollipop" and "Peg 'O My Heart"? Incidentally, did Ben every buy a jacket?

SYMPHONETTES

This year the Symphonettes gave numerous performances before appreciative audiences in Algona. Although it is a small organization, the girls in this group are very versatile and musically talented. Included in their 1958-1959 repertoire were such numbers as: "Lullaby of Birdland," "Soft Summer Breeze," "Too Young," and "Sleigh Ride."

MIXED

Have you ever passed the large room at the end of Junior High Alley on Tuesday, Thursday, or Friday at 8:35? If you have, you're likely to have heard Mr. Snustad, our director, politely say that chorus is ready to begin. From then on, except for a few minor interruptions from the back row, the most harmonious sounds emerge from behind the closed door.

"A MAN CALLED PETER"

Dramatized from the book "A MAN CALLED PETER" by Catherine Marshall, this is the heartwarming story of the trials and tribulations a pastor in a large Washington, D. C. church faced. With ill health threatening his life, youthful and vigorous Peter Marshall must somehow continue his essential services to his church members.

The characters, taken from real life, had their own problems that always seemed a little easier to bear after Dr. Marshall had listened to them and offered his advice.

Although mainly of a religious nature, the play had a bit of humor which added to the overall appeal of the performance.

Activities along the Junior corridor seemed a bit quieter for a time after the play was given. Only those who had seen or taken part in the dramatization could describe the outstanding message the play conveyed to everyone.

Many thanks to our patient director, Mr. Kapfer. . . he needs it!

FRESH-SOPH PLAY

The "Sisters McIntosh" is a one-act comedy written by Richard Corsen. As the play develops a young man comes to the house of Tizzie and Lulie McIntosh, claiming to be their cousin Archie. The way the gullible Tizzie and the dubious Lulie receive him is a comical barrel of fun.

FORENSICS

Stammering and stuttering, the debaters began classroom work last fall with only one polished veteran, Linda Smith. Soon Coach Palmer ventured to Fort Dodge with his "B" team of stutterers. Something happened; they brought home a terrific record (although no trophy). Before any "A" squad meets, "Palm" did a bit of switching to arrive with this combination: Ben Herbst, John Wilson, and Pat Cowan, affirmatives; Jean Bjustrom and Linda Smith, negatives. The debate trips brought no outstanding recognition, but there was always some cheerful note -- if not in debate, then in forensics.

Ice cancelled one trip for the team, but other than that they managed to camouflage their one case per team through a five - meet season with no major catastrophes (except somewhere between Algona and Cedar Rapids lies one lost bobby-sox!)

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN . . .

- . . . 539 North Phillips Street rocked with a senior celebration staged by Joyce? It was quite a success!!
- . . . Judy O'Brien and other senior girls reported the Northern Lights to the Fire Department?
- . . . Sandy Phillips forgot her car at school at noon and rode home with someone else?
- . . . Coach Duvall said, "I don't consider missing the basket by four inches so bad when some senior boys missed Ames by fifty miles"?
- . . . The volume of junk that came out of Carol Shore and Garry Davis's locker filled the hall corridor? They should advise Ezra Benson on maximum packing in surplus storage.
- . . . A local policeman wondered why several seniors were trying out the new laundromat at 1:30 A.M.?
- . . . Pat gave a speech on athletics in A.H.S. in the years B.C. (Before Cowan)?
- . . . Jerry Meyer tried to convince Mr. Kapfer that women are the downfall of the world?
- . . . Carol Shore was selling annuals and Palm asked, "Do you have a sales license?"
- . . . Marv and Pat's concoction was uncorked in physics class? It was the only time the guys sat in the front row and a need for gas masks resulted.
- . . . Robbie's interpretation of Browning was accidental and not clowning?
- . . . John and nine friends went in one car to Eagle Grove and then led the track team on a wild goose chase?
- . . . Delores Eisenbarth goofed with a red-lettered note to a faculty member?
- . . . The "lucky five" (Mavis, Nola, Ruth, Delores, and Judy) broke the Bingo bank at the all-night party after the prom?
